

Unto This Land

Music Helen Yeomans / Lyrics Helen Yeomans & Daverick Leggett

$\text{♩} = 55$  pp

SOPRANO

ALTO

TENOR

BASS

1)Un - to this land my heart I seal to love and cher-ish as my
 2)Un - to this land I shall re turn when all my days on earth are

1)Un - to this land my heart I seal to al wayslove and cher-ish as my
 2)Un - to this land I shall re - turn when all my days u - pon this earth are.

1)Un - to this land my heart I seal to al wayslove and cher-ish as my
 2)Un - to this land I shall re - turn when all my days u - pon this earth are

4 cresc

S. own done Through my veins her cry - stal
In her arms I'll lay my

A.
own done Through my veins her
In her arms I'll

T. own done And through my veins arms her cry - stal
And in her arms I'll lay my

B. own done And through my veins arms her cry - stal
And in her arms I'll lay my

6 mf dim Finish song here

S.
wa - ters flow to the o - cean of my soul.
bo - dy down and my heart will find its home.

A.
wa - ters flow to the o - cean of my soul.
lay me down and my heart will find its home.

T. wa - ters flow to the o - cean of my soul. Un - to this bo - dy down and my heart will find its home Un - to this

B. wa - ters flow to the o - cean of my soul. Un - to this bo - dy down and my heart will find its home Un - to this Structure: It's nice to start this song without the basses, bringing them in in a repeat of verse 1. Thereafter it's up to you. After singing verse 2 it's sweet to 'ooh' a verse, then sing both verses again (without repeating verse 1 this time) to finish, or just choosing one verse. Repeat final phrase at the end, slowing down.